\square Sheet 5 — Hiring Trend

The hiring trend offers a snapshot of employee start dates across the organization.

A significant peak is observed in 2020 and 2021, suggesting a focused hiring period during post-COVID recovery.

Earlier years like 2018 also show steady hiring but at a lower rate.

These trends may reflect business scaling phases or organizational expansion plans. Insight: Hiring surged recently, which can influence budgeting, onboarding strategies, and salary negotiations.
