Position Name

 Sheet 4 — Who earns more?
This chart highlights salary differences across job positions.
The top-paid role is Marketing Analyst with a total salary of $333,000, followed closely by DevOps Engineer and Sales Representative.
In contrast, Recruiter and Account Executive roles show the lowest total salaries.
This might indicate either fewer high-paid individuals in those roles or generally lower compensation trends.
Clear insight: Not all roles are equally valued in salary despite their department or title.
